

DONALD TRUMP FOR PRESIDENT?

By Mike Exton

I have never voted in my entire life and I am not about to start now. Just about every single politician we have ever had has been corrupt. Even "Honest Abe" (i.e. Abraham Lincoln) was only elected president because he bribed the delegates at the National Republican convention.

So how about Donald Trump? Well, he does have one thing going for him: he is not a politician! And so far it appears that he is not bought (though I'm not at all convinced he won't someday take "legal" bribes just like all the rest of the politicians). Does he lie just like a politician? Absolutely! Does he say a lot of foolish things at times? Absolutely! Does he sometimes say things that are immature and downright childish? Absolutely! Does he sometimes say things that are offensive and irresponsible at times? Absolutely! Is he (if he becomes president) going to "make America great again"? Absolutely NOT!

Was it General McArthur (or was it Patton) who said (right after WWII) that the problems of the world are spiritual in nature. He said that if we want to solve the world's problems we need to change our hearts, both individually and collectively. And how true those words are! But unfortunately that is never going to happen. This world is bent on evil and things are getting worse and worse with each and every passing day. As the Bible states: "The heart is deceitful above all else and terribly wicked. Who can understand it?"

The ONLY one who could possibly change this country (as well as the rest of the world) for the better is Jesus Christ. Right now (as the Bible makes abundantly clear) Satan is running the show and he is not about to let up on deceiving mankind. He (along with his demonic cohorts) are very busy every second of every day inspiring humanity to do wicked things (not the least of which is savagely slaughtering over a million precious little babies each and every year in our nation alone). And things are only going to get worse, much worse, until we find ourselves on the brink of the total annihilation of the human race ("cosmocide") in the soon-coming third world war. But the good news is this: just as we are about to destroy ourselves (and the planet as well) Jesus Christ returns to earth. And He WILL stop the madness for once and for all, as Satan will be dethroned and removed. Christ will then rule in righteousness, love, power, and wisdom. The world will then burst forth in joy, peace, and prosperity. But until that day, things are prophesied to get worse and worse.

So would Trump (if elected president) be able to bring about the change that so many of us desperately desire? Of course not! The lies and deceptions will continue. The politicians will continue to be bribed ("legally" and "illegally") and to submit to their big corporate masters. Islamic terrorists will continue to savagely massacre scores of innocent people. Helpless little babies by the millions will continue to have their limbs ripped apart and their precious little bodies sucked out of their mother's wombs (all in the name of "pro-choice"—pro-murder actually!). Morals will continue to get even worse and worse (very similar to the ancient cities of Sodom and Gomorrah) with ever increasing perversions. More and more people will continue to reject God and instead have faith in the foolish evolutionary hypothesis. And on and on and on it goes.

So would Donald Trump be able to bring about real positive change? Absolutely not! Besides many of his other shortcomings, he is terribly lacking in character, which is one of the most important things for a president to have. But unfortunately, as bad as he is, he's probably the best candidate that we have (which shows just how bad things have gotten and how low we have sunk!).

Bernie Sanders is perhaps the only candidate who doesn't lie on a continuous basis. Plus, you know exactly what you are getting with him as he doesn't play games and try to deceive the American public. (Hillary "Let Me Tell You A Lot More Lies" Clinton of course is an expert at this, and this is why she has a great chance of being elected, as she is too clever in her deceptive ways for much of the American public.) Unfortunately, Bernie Sanders is a Democrat, which means he is in favor of the barbaric butchering of millions of little babies, so there is no way I could possibly support him (or any other pro-murder candidate). Plus of course he has socialist (if not even communist) leanings (and has even praised Fidel Castro as well as at least one other communist dictator). Plus of course he's in favor of stealing from the rich (as he said he wants to tax them 90%) and giving to the poor (free food, free housing, free cell phones, free college, free medical, free sex changes, etc.—what's next—free pornography and free sex for everyone?). (But of course none of this is really free. The federal government is about 19 trillion dollars in the red, and it's only a matter of time before we collapse from bankruptcy.)

But the best thing about the possibility of Donald Trump being elected president is this: If he becomes president the American public would essentially be telling politicians: "Kiss My XXX!!!" Which of course is why so many people are supporting him! They are sick and tired of the BS that takes place in this country

each and every day from our elected corrupt habitually-lying officials. And they have said "ENOUGH IS ENOUGH! I'M MAD AS HELL AND I'M NOT GOING TO TAKE IT ANYMORE!! LET'S SEE HOW YOU LIKE THIS—I'M VOTING FOR DONALD TRUMP!!!" And that's what it's all about.
