

Why Should We Be Destroyed, America?

America, on September 11th of this year we all woke up to the most horrendous terrorist act to occur on USA soil in the history of our beloved nation. We were attacked by crazed terrorists in sudden and terrible fashion, causing the destruction and death of many. But America, how will we respond? How will we react to this horrible attack? Will we be jolted out of our deep sleep—our complacency—to really do something about it, to really do what it will take to guarantee that something like this never happens again? Or will we continue to slumber to what is really occurring to our cherished nation?

We have to wake up America, and wake up soon! Because unless we do so, we will suffer dearly. For the only way that we can ever prevent future attacks from occurring is if God is on our side! For if God is for us we shall prosper, but if God is against us (like Sodom and Gomorrah) we shall be destroyed!

America, we need to wake up! We need to REPENT! We need to repent of the horrible practice of abortion—of butchering thousands of innocent little babies each day under the Satanic guise of “the ‘right’ to choose.” America, as long as we continue to think that we have the “right” to kill thousands of innocent little babies in our country each day, then God will continue to allow terrorists to think that they have the “right” to kill thousands of innocent adults. America, we need to be “pro-life” and not “pro-death.” Because as long as we feel we have the “right” to kill others, then others will feel that they have the “right” to kill us. What is it going to be America—life or death? Because if we continue to choose death for our little ones, then God will continue to allow others to choose death for us!

America, we need to REPENT! We need to repent of our hideous sexual practices. For as long as we continue to think that we have the “right” to destroy our bodies and minds through perverted sexual practices, then God will continue to allow terrorists to think that they have the “right” to destroy our buildings and institutions. And as long as we continue to give individuals the “right” to openly practice and promote vile sexual abominations, then God will continue to allow others to think that they have the “right” to openly promote and practice the downfall and destruction of America.

America, we need to REPENT! We need to repent of trusting in money, and instead, start trusting in God. Our dollar bills say, “In God we trust,” but in reality what we really trust in is the paper that this slogan is printed on. Unless we repent and start trusting in God—instead of our wealth—then others will continue to trust in attacking us. We need to get rid of our crass materialism—where everything is money, money, money, and possessions, possessions, possessions. Instead, our focus needs to be on pleasing God and doing what HE says. Because if we continue to worship money and material goods, then God will continue to allow others to be pleased with destroying our financial centers.

America, we need to REPENT! We need to repent of trusting in our own military might (as well as that of our allies). All the military weapons and armies in the world are not going to protect us at all if God is not on our side. For if we continue to trust in our own power (and that of our allies), then God will continue to allow others to use their power to destroy our military institutions.

America, the terrorist acts that occurred in New York, Pennsylvania, and Washington D.C. on September 11th were absolutely NOTHING compared to the horrifying acts that will eventually occur to America, unless we repent. The handwriting is now on the wall—and we have been weighed in the balance and found wanting. Unless we repent, we will eventually be brought low, very low. The terrorist acts that occurred on September 11th will pale in significance when compared to the death and destruction that waits in the wings if we continue to follow our present course. For others who are much more clever, much more sinister, much more cunning, much more evil, and much more powerful will eventually attack us and destroy us! It will come suddenly and without warning and catch us totally asleep—much like the terrorist attack of September 11th. But this time it will be a blitzkrieg attack of unprecedented magnitude and unparalleled destruction! America will suddenly be no more! Unless we repent now!

America, what will it be? Will we choose life or will we choose death?

America, on September 11th we were given a most dramatic wake-up call. How will we respond? Will we repent of our terrible sins and turn to God, or will we continue to go our own way, the way that seems right to man. The choice is now ours. How will we react? Will we choose life or will we choose death? By changing our foolish ways and turning to God in deep, heartfelt repentance, we will be choosing life and we will live. But, if we do not repent and instead continue to go in the direction that we are headed, then we will be choosing death and our fate will be sealed.

So America, what is it going to be? Will we repent of slaughtering innocent little babies? Will we repent of all our sexual perversions, adultery, and pornography? Will we repent of our false gods of money and material possessions? Will we repent of trusting in ourselves (and our allies) and doing things our way (instead of God's way)?

Once again, America, what is it going to be? Will it be life or will it be death? What will we choose? May God help us to make the right decision—to choose life and live! For God takes no pleasure in the death of the unrighteous, but instead He hopes that they will turn from their wicked ways and live.

So America, REPENT! For why should we be destroyed?
